LITHOS COLLECTION

Authentic Stone

Reimagined Harmony

Named for the Greek word for stone, this collection offers an authentic and refined aesthetic, perfect for crafting elegant, contemporary environments.

The Lithos Collection draws inspiration from four iconic architectural stones: Travertino Rapolano, French Stone, Limestone, and Travertino Noce. This timeless palette enhances the materiality of the tile and expands its design possibilities, while the diverse formats offer versatile solutions for residential and commercial spaces.

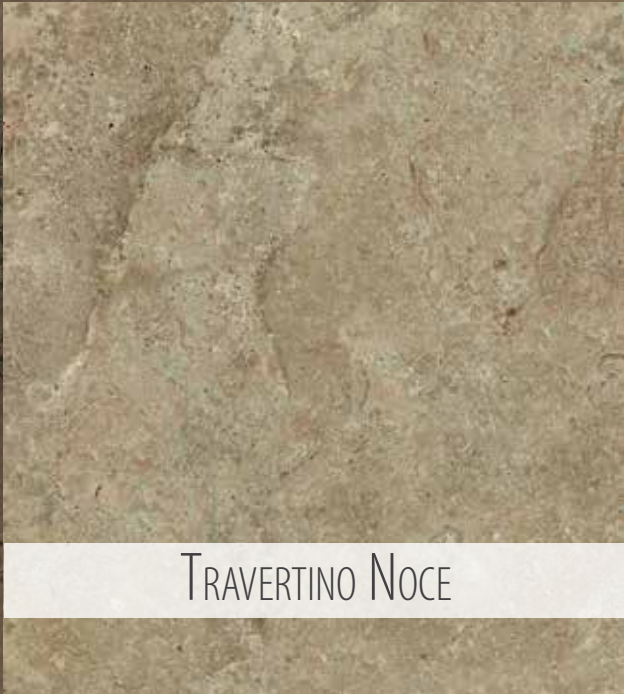

Experience the dual essence of natural stone with our two distinct finishes. Choose the Natural finish for the authentic charm and slightly rough texture of the raw material, or the Honed finish for a silky, softly luminous surface that subtly amplifies the perception of space.

Let Alamo Stone help you choose a selection from our Lithos Collection, where the materiality of stone meets the durability and sophistication of porcelain.
