PRODUCT HIGHLIGHTS

The Bricklane porcelain tile collection takes inspiration from the artistic and fashionable microcosms of the London street of the same name, aiming to reflect its eclectic spirit through the use of a wide variety of shades inside each tile, as an interpretation for the contemporary taste for building restoration.

Each Bricklane full-body colored tile measures 7.5 x 30 x 0.85 centimeters, which is about 3 x 12 x $\frac{5}{16}$ in, and corner pieces are also available.

The amazing graphic variety in the Bricklane tiles simulate the look of old plaster on the bricks, further enriching its aesthetic value when installed as wall cladding or flooring.
