CASTLEBRIDGE COLLECTION

A Heritage of Rustic Elegance

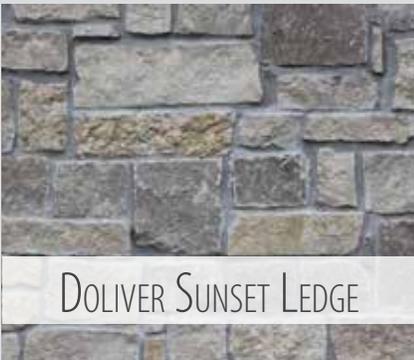

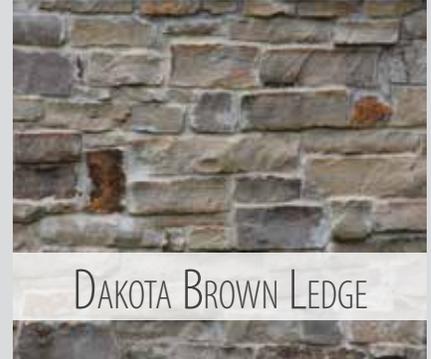

Journey through the picturesque landscapes of Europe and the Mediterranean with the Castlebridge Collection. Inspired by the enduring beauty of historic castles and country manors, this collection captures a timeless charm that resonates with architectural heritage, making it the perfect choice for manor or country-style homes.

The collection features natural ledges and rough chop stone, expertly crafted to recreate the authentic character of traditional fieldstone. Available in heights ranging from 3" to 10", these custom blends create a diverse and vibrant color range, offering a unique stone aesthetic that honors the rich cultural past while utilizing modern quarrying techniques.

For added versatility, select stones in the Castlebridge Collection are also available in sawn heights or a tumbled finish, providing a look that is both elegant and approachable. Let Alamo Stone bring the storied warmth of the Old World to your next project, blending rugged, natural textures with the sophisticated standards of contemporary design.
